

JOIN THE TOWN HALL FEATURE FILM SEMINAR SERIES

DISCOVER WHAT OVER 600 MEMBERS HAVE ENJOYED FOR THE PAST FOURTEEN YEARS!

For the past 14 years The Town Hall Feature Film Seminar Series has been sold-out. Despite our 1500 seats we limited membership to 600 to facilitate the discussion period. Many patrons have pointed out that most film nights at least 10% of the audience is otherwise engaged leaving room for others. With this in mind we've decided on a test basis to raise our annual subscriber limit to 700 thus giving you the opportunity to join the group.

ABOUT THE FILM SEMINAR SERIES

This series introduced in 1998 has become an audience favorite. Studio and independent releases are screened followed by a discussion with people affiliated with the film. Host Scott Siegel, nationally renowned film critic and author, leads guests through an entertaining informative Q&A session. Producers, directors, actors, writers and others connected with the film appear as part of the series. They offer behind-the-scenes stories, intimate discussions and details of the filmmaking process. Among past guests were: David Duchovny, Stanley Tucci, Peter Bogdanovich, Phyllis Newman, Michael Shamberg, Peter Gallagher, Mary-Louise Parker, Rob Morrow, Louise Lasser, Fred Schepisi, Jill Sprecher, Nia Vardalos, and more.

The Town Hall Feature Film Seminar Series has proudly showcased successful releases that have gone on to national acclaim. Past films have included: Certifiably Jonathan, Desert Flower, The Young Victoria, The First Grader, Living in Emergency, Against the Current, Life in Ruins, Amazing Grace, In My Country, Calendar Girls, The Other Boleyn Girl, The Merchant of Venice, The Notebook, Center Stage, The Other Sister, Election, The Red Violin, Arlington Road, and The Spanish Prisoner.
